This family begins in the Rhineland/Palatinate area of Germany around 1600. One branch crossed the Atlantic to the American colonies in the 1750s to 1770s, and settled in Maryland, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Another in the 1790s went east into Galicia (on the eastern edge of Austro-Hungarian Empire). This area is now part of Poland, and the Ukraine. Today's members of this branch live in Poland, the Ukraine, and German-speaking countries, and some have emigrated to the United States and Canada.

 Parents:
 John and Martha (Hockensmith) Warstler
 Buried at Bear Creek Cemetery Auburn, Indiana

Bear Creek Cemetery is located on CR 45 between roads 60 and 64, Auburn, Indiana. The cemetery has been vandalized in the past years. Most of the tombstones are lying in a pile at the back of the cemetery—so there isn't any way to know where the people's graves are who are buried there.

Victor Warstler is one that was still there at his gravesite. The top of his stone had been broken off and is lying on the ground next to his stone.

John Warstler and his first wife Caroline are buried there. Caroline's tombstone is also still standing.

Also, John Warstler and Martha (Hockensmith) Warstler's child Victor is buried there.

LEAKAGE OF HEART IS FATAL TO AUBURN WOMAN

Mrs. Mary Nettie Oberlin Passed Away at Home on North Cedar Street Monday Morning

Mrs. Mary Nettie Oberlin died sitting in a chair Monday morning at 4 o'clock at her home on North Cedar street, leakage of the heart and complications. The deceased has not been able to lie down for the past three months, except occasionally, and as was her custom she was trying to get some rest Sunday night in a chair when the end came. She had been seriously sick for six months.

Mrs. Oberlin was born north of Waterloo in Smithfield township, and has lived in DeKalb county her entire life. During the past fifteen years she has resided in Auburn. She was born November 1st, 1858, and her age at the time of her death was 64 years, 8 months and 29 days.

Five children survive, Edward Oberlin, of West Seventh street, George Oberlin of Michigan avenue, Mrs. Ora Warstler of Center street, and Bessie, living at home. Mrs. Ralph Rainier, another daughter, resides in South Bend.

A brother, George Corbin living north of Waterloo in Smithfield township, and four grandchildren also survive.

The funeral service will be held at the late home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. S. E. Slater, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be made in the cemetery at Waterloo.

MARY NIETTIE OBERLIN CORBIN.

Mary Nettie Oberlin, the daughter of Charles and Sarah Jane Corbin, was born November 1, 1858, in Smithfield township, and died July 30, 1923, at 4:15 in the morning at her home on North Cedar street, Auburn, in the 64th year, 8th month and 29th day of her life.

During the past six months of her life, the deceased was a sufferer from heart trouble, the immediate cause of her death being leakage of the heart. During this time she was a patient sufferer, uncomplaining and cheerful.

She was the mother of twelve children, five of whom are now living. The eldest, Edward, resides on west Seventh street, Auburn; and the next, Mrs. Ralph Rainier lives in South Bend. The other living children in rotation to their ages are George of Michigan avenue, Mrs. Ora Warstler of Center street and Bessie Oberlin, who made her home with her mother.

Six children passed away in infancy and one son lived to be twenty years of age before death claimed him. Besides the living children, George Corbin, residing in Smithfield township, a brother—and four grandchildren survive.

Mrs. Oberlin was a good mother and reared her children as become exemplary citizens. She resided the greater part of her life in Smithfield township and about fifteen years ago, she moved to Auburn, where she has since resided. She was a kind neighbor and friend. She was a member of Barker's Chapel congregation in Smithfield township. Her quiet and unassuming life made her beloved and, though during the last few years of her life she has been kept closely to her home by reason of her physical infirmity, she has found time to minister to the wants of others in need of help.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, August 1st at her late home in Auburn and was conducted by Rev. S. E. Slater, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church. Her remains were laid to rest in the Waterloo cemetery.

Leaves have their time to fall,
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath;
And stars are set, but for all,
Thou hast a season for thine own,
oh Death.

Youth and the opening rose,
May look like things too glorious to call:
But youth and age and high and low repose,
Wher'er the sickle of the reaper,
Death, doth fall.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies thou anointest my head with oil my cup runneth over Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever

LIONEL FLEMING, AUBURN YOUTH, DIES IN EUROPE

War brought sadness and grief to another home in Auburn Tuesday when a telegram came from the war department at Washington conveying word that Corp. Lionel Fleming, son of Mrs. Hazel Fleming of 248 South Center street, had died in the European area on June 25, 1943.

There were no details in the telegram as to the cause of death, whether from disease, accident or by combat action.

The telegram from the adjutant general to Mrs. Fleming read: "The secretary of war asks that I assure you of his deep sympathy in the loss of your son, Corp. Lionel D. Fleming. Report just received states that he died on June 25th in the European area. Letter follows."

Corp. Fleming was inducted into the service at Fort Benjamin Harrison near Indianapolis on July 24, 1941 of last year. He was then sent to Atlantic City, N. J. for a month and then to Lowry field, near Denver, Colo., where he entered the technical school in the U. S. Army Air Force ground crew. Later he was sent to Wendover field, Utah and Sioux City, Iowa. He was sent overseas the latter part of May of this year. 1943

He wrote his first letter from England on June 19 and as the date of his death is given as June 25 it is believed that he died in England. His letters indicated that he liked his work in the ground crew of the air force.

Corp. Fleming graduated from the Auburn high school in the class of 1938. He worked for two years and then entered Purdue university where he studied mechanical engineering for two years.

The designation in the telegram of corporal was the first information that the family had received that he had been advanced to this post. He was a private first class when he went overseas and may have been advanced in rank just a few days before his death.

Corp. Fleming was born in Hudson, Ind., on August 10, 1920, and would have been 23 years of age in August. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hazel Fleming and one sister, Miss Idola, of 248 South Center street.

June's first love was the boy next door
Lionel Fleming.
Lionel was killed June 25, 1943
in Europe when he was 22 years old.

June took piano lessons when she was a little girl.
She was a natural. She could play just about anything.
Her favorite piece was Clair de Lune by Claude Debussy.

She loved the song and could play it so beautifully.

Clair de Lune was played at her funeral at the request of her sons Gary and Arlen Brunson and her cousin Joyce Springer. She would have loved that.

June (Warstler) Brunson's Biography
By June Brunson

I was born on a Monday morning December 10, 1923 at 11:45am and weighed 4 pounds at birth. I was born in the living room of the Warstler homestead at 250 South Center Street. Auburn, Indiana.

My mother was Margaret Marie (Oberlin) Warstler and my father was Ora Dale Warstler.

My mother's first husband was Elmer Evans. They had a baby they named Vincent Evans and he died when he was 9 months old from some childhood disease. He would have been my half brother.

I started at DeSoto Grade school when I was 5 years old. The school was located on South Baxter Street Auburn, Indiana. I was so backward and shy that I was afraid to answer the teacher when she asked me a question. The teacher let me bring my doll and cat to school to help me from being so shy but this didn't help in conduct and effort. Finally I changed some in the second and third grade.

After school I would come home and either have vegetable soup or pancakes made by my dad Ora.

I went to DeSoto School for 6 years DeSoto School was 6 blocks from my home. As I walked to and from school I passed a barber shop and also a grocery store owned by Porter DePew. The grocery was on the corner of Center and 9th Streets. Mr. DePew had one of those Pot belly heating stoves in the grocery. There was always a gathering of people there having fun talking to each other and getting warm in the winter.

After the 6th grade I went to Junior High School on West 14th which was the 7th and 8th grade. The Junior High School was at least a mile from my home so I took my lunch and went to Aunt Bessie and Uncle Ford Rohm's home on West 11th Street. Their home was only about 2 blocks from the Junior High School.

I then went on to McIntosh (Auburn High School) High School at 800 South Main Street. I graduated from McIntosh High School in 1941.

The depression took a toll on my dad as he couldn't get work. However He did get some work painting houses and stores. Dad also worked for my Uncle Ed Oberlin and Cousin Richard Oberlin most of the time.

Mother went to work at the telephone company when I started school. Mother got split shifts from 11:00 pm to 7:00 am. She later was advanced to supervisor and retired after 25 years.

The boy next door was Lionel Fleming. He helped me in my studies in high school. Lionel was my first love.

After graduating high school my first job was at the Auburn Rubber Company. I made 40 cents an hour for 40 hours a week. Then I went to work at Messenger Corporation. Messengers as it was know made greeting cards and calendars. My job was to put colorful inlays in greeting cards

I met sisters Elizabeth and Ilene Creager at Messengers. They each had a date for the following Sunday July 24, 1942 to go to Toledo Zoo, Toledo Ohio. They wanted me to meet Argyle Brunson so he was my blind date to go with them to the zoo We packed a lunch and had a lovely time.

At first I didn't like Arge's looks, but after the second date (the next Friday night) I fell for him hook line and sinker!

For the second date he picked me up in an old Pontiac that Delmar had put together. We didn't know if it would make it home or not. I had saved $500.00 so I gave it to Arge to get a maroon Ford Coup with a rumble seat.

Arge was still in high school and would have graduated in May but quit school. The following May 27, 1943 at the pastors home at the Episcopal Church, Butler, Indiana Arge and I were married. Auntie May Oberlin was our witness as my mother didn't want to come to our wedding.

We lived with my dad Ora for a while. My mother divorced my dad in 1943. She fell in love with George Crofoot. They eventually married in 1944.

Arge was going on 18 years old and didn't want to be drafted, instead he joined the United States Navy. On September 8th Arge went into the Navy.

Arge, and a friend and his girlfriend went off in the Ford Coupe and no one knew where they were. I was frantic with worry. My dad called Ethel and asked her if she would help me and take me to her house. I lived there for about a little over one month worrying, wondering and crying about Arge. Delmar and Robert Brunson called the police and sent them looking for the lost Arge and the other two people. They found Arge living with a girl in Angola, Indiana. Arge had sold the car for money to play around with. We all went to Erma Brunson's house on Walnut Street, Butler, Indiana. Bob and Delmar brought Arge back.

Erma, Delmar and Robert gave Arge a good talking to. Arge asked for forgiveness although I could never forget my first five months as his wife.

I got a Job at Marshall's Clothing Company in Butler. I rode my bike to work everyday. I was staying with Arge's sister Ethel. I was banking the allotment I got from Arge every month. I had saved quite a lot when Arge came home. He was discharged from the Navy in January 1946.

Arge's mother Erma Brunson met Claude Eakright and married him. I was staying in Ethel's upstairs apartment. I rode my bicycle to work at Marshall Clothing so it kept me busy working and writing a letter each night to Arge.

While listening to the radio there was a news flash that Germany had surrendered. This was known as V E Day.

When Arge got out of the Navy we lived with my dad Ora on 250 South Center street, Auburn Indiana. We had a Warstler reunion in June of 1946. My aunts Soloma, Ethel and Cora and their families were there. They were to sleep in our beds and when they found out I had Athletes foot, they were upset and didn't want to stay which made Arge mad.

We left Auburn and headed for Shawnee Oklahoma. Clarence Brown "Brownie" was Arge's buddy. He helped drive out to Shawnee We arrived there and lived with "Brownie" for 2 weeks until we found an apartment on Oklahoma Street. I wasn't working and neither was Arge. Arge and Brownie loved to play a game called Snooker (a form of pool). They would play all day. The money I had saved from Arge's allotment during war time was just about all used up—then I became pregnant. Then one day because Arge was low on cash he sold my portable typewriter. He finally got a job in a factory in Shawnee.

We had moved over to Leuian Street in an upstairs apartment about 5 months before Gary was born. Gary was born Sunday, August 3, 1942 at 10:00AM: In those days a new mother had to stay in the hospital 2 weeks. Gary was 2 weeks late in coming, and I was in labor for hours. The doctor said that my bones needed to give and the next morning with the help of the doctor, Gary was born.

During this time I was unaware that my dad had been on a trip out west with friends from Auburn. They were coming back to Indiana and stopped at our apartment. Dad talked to our friends and asked where I was. Dad came to the hospital where I was. He was the very first visitor to see Gary. We were so very happy. Arge had sent a telegram to my mother about the birth. No one had let my dad know about the birth

My mother and her husband George Crofoot came out by train to see us. They stayed for several weeks with us. They asked Arge, me, Gary and Brownie to come back to Indiana and start a laundry. We stayed with mom and George in their apartment on King Street Garrett, Indiana until the laundry was built with room on the front for our living quarters.

We took in washings and ironings. Arge did the washing and I did the ironing . I especially hated to do men's white shirts. We had an ice box we had to buy ice for once a week. The drip pan had to be emptied 2 times a day.

We sometimes went to to Wawasee Lake Indiana at Oakwood Park where my Auntie Mae and Uncle Ed Oberlin had a cottage. We had fun there.

Almost every other week Arge would bring home tomatoes and I would can them. .During one time when I was canning tomatoes Gary got burned on his chest and arms with tomato juice. What a terrible day that was. I felt so bad I never wanted to see a tomato or pressure cooker again. The whole horrible thing happened so fast I guess I was frozen. Gary was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital, Garrett, Indiana. I stayed with Gary everyday. I would go to the hospital to be with Gary around 7:00AM each morning. Arge would come after me around 6:00PM to 9:00PM. Mom and George also hired a nurse to stay with Gary from 11:00PM to 7:00AM. Auntie Mae and Uncle Ed would come to see Gary every so often also Aunt Ethel would sometimes visit.

Dad had an accident at the Auburn Foundry. Some say he fell off a pile of boards during his lunch time and broke his leg. He came to see Gary walking on crutches. He died of a coronary thrombosis the following January 17, 1950. I inherited the home and lot on Center Street.

Gary was released from the hospital May 1950. We made our home above Reidhart's Grocery in Garrett, Indiana with Grandma Erma Brunson Eakright. Arge sold the laundry business. Lynn Andrews hired Arge to deliver Shellane Bottled Gas (Propane). Arge stayed in this business the rest of his life.

I'm not sure what happened to the money from the laundry sale, but Arge left our apartment as soon as he signed the papers. He may have used the money from the laundry business for gambling at the VFW playing poker.

Then I became pregnant for Arlen. This predicament was very stressful for me and I cried a lot knowing Arge loved gambling more than he did me.

Grandma Erma was helping with Gary and me. Arlen was two weeks late as was Gary when he was born. Dr. Nason tried with a shot to bring him earlier. I was in Sacred heart Hospital and Dr. Nason had me walking up and down the halls to bring the baby. Arge was holding my hand during this time. My water broke and 11 hours later with the help of a nun and Arge giving me the either, Arlen Dale was born, Thursday evening January 4, 1951 at 11:00.pm

The front window of our apartment was made out of many panes of glass, approximately 100 panes or more. I used to take Gary for a walk in his Taylor Tot stroller. We would go up and down Randolph Street then back to the apartment. Grandma Erma was there helping us. I believe Erma's husband Claude Eakright had died a couple of months after my father.

Many a night I stood before the many paned glass window of our apartment looking down at the door of the VFW hoping Arge would come home to me.

We moved into my dad's home on Center Street. I got a job at the telephone company in Auburn in October of 1953.

I remember one July 4, 1952 weekend Arge said he was going to the Cherry Festival in Traverse City Michigan with a friend Norman Best and his girlfriend. Arge did not want me to go along. I found out later that he had a girl already lined up to go with him named Edna Best, Norman's sister. I didn't want to believe this but was told that Arge had been seeing her. The girls that I worked with all knew about her.

When I was home at night after supper, Arge would leave and not come home until bedtime. Both Grandmas helped to raise you kids along with my input.

We had a chance to live in a house belonging to Hubert Grogg. Hubert was crippled from polio. We took care of him. Arge would bath him and put him in bed and I got him three meals a day. He lived on Jackson Street in Auburn, Indiana

With Arge having all these women—I would pace back and forth crying and wondering what I had done to him to make him this way. I never told anyone about this situation, however. I think everyone knew.

June didn't live long enough to finish her life story. She died December 24, 2009. This was all she had written.

Arlen's eulogy for his mother
Violet (Warstler) Brunson
January 5, 2010

January 5, 2010.

I'd like to thank everyone for being here to celebrate Mom's life.

I want to share a few thoughts about Mom.

Mom, I will miss you.

I will miss your childlike innocence, your sense of wonderment and awe. I will fondly remember short Sunday car trips as a child and your excitement about just riding around, encouraging Dad to take different roads and just getting lost for a while.

I will miss your courage, moving so many times in your life and starting over with Dad as well as without him after your divorce, somewhere new, adapting your life, making new friends, getting a new job, leaving family and memories behind each time. It seemed difficult for me to do as a child and I realize it was also not easy for you or Dad.

I know you enjoyed your childhood, being an only child and having loving family around you. But it could not have been easy as a child during the Great Depression doing without, or getting married young and having Dad away in the Navy during WW II, not knowing if he would return.

In the past 25 years, I reconnected with you in a different way, growing closer to you, more as friends on an adventure than Mother and Son. You developed a refreshing sense of confidence and independence. You learned to drive again, enjoyed working, stopped smoking and helped to take care of Grandpa George until his death. Your tireless work researching family genealogy will be greatly appreciated by me and others in the years to come.

Even though we tried each other's patience at times, I know we both really enjoyed our adventures going to out to dinner or shopping, to musical plays, movies and concerts, traveling in the car visiting places like Graceland and Dollywood, riding the train up to Lookout Mountain, searching for many of the places we once lived, and visiting with family and friends.

And I will always respect you for the way you coped with the tragedy of losing your house, all your things and your neighborhood and friends after Hurricane Andrew in Homestead Florida in 1992. You were traumatized by it, but you picked yourself up and started over, looking after all your pets and your companion Russell, until his death shortly thereafter.

I will miss your generosity to others and your uncanny ability to quickly make friends with anyone and to reconnect with friends and family from the past. I recall several times visiting you in Florida at Christmas where you just kept giving me and your friends numerous small, inexpensive but thoughtful gifts because you so enjoyed seeing people smile. You took in and cared for many unwanted cats and dogs who became your close friends as well.

You saw the best in others. I can never forget you introducing me at the station to people you had met while traveling to New Orleans from Homestead on the bus or train by yourself to visit with me. I was always amazed and sometimes a bit embarrassed that, after your journey, your new friends somehow seemed to know more about me than even I knew.

I appreciate your determination to live simply, passionate about recycling and reusing things, resisting buying new furniture and new clothes until we insisted. You lived an honest life with integrity and humility.

I will miss playing card games and dominoes, putting puzzles together and playing Scrabble with you. You relished beating me at Scrabble, which you often did. I loved that you enjoyed romantic movies, listening to different kinds of music, playing the piano and Christmas. I have the image fixed in my brain of one Christmas in Fairborn, Ohio when a new piano that Dad, Gary and I had picked out was delivered and you sat crying with joy playing that piano on Christmas Day.

You and Dad struggled financially but always worked hard, took care of our needs and instilled that work ethic in us, expecting us to do well in school and go to college. You and Dad encouraged our success and expressed pride in our accomplishments. You weren't perfect parents but you were both blessed with good and generous souls and you did the best that could have been expected of you. I know I am a better person because I had both of you as my parents.

To quote from lyrics of a song by the group Coldplay, "Those who are dead are not dead, they're just living in my head." Mom, you and Dad will always live in me. And I know that part of your spirit will live on in everyone you touched.

Goodbye for now, Mom.
